Bubbling Well Daily Report of July 3, 1933.

ILLEGAL FUNCTIONING.

At about 2.45 p.m. on the 2/7/33, S.P.C. 459 on duty at Edinburgh and Yu Yuen Roads informed F.S. 364 Malley that he had been having some difficulty with a Chinese hawk who refused to move when requested to.

The hawk moved a few yards along the Edinburgh Road when ordered to move on by W.S. Malley and then stopped again, and when the above officer attempted to arrest him he caught hold of a tree and called out and attracted the attention of Chapei Policeman No. 3419 who was on duty on the Edinburgh Road.

Mr. Lawrence, residing at No. 26 Tifeng Road, who was passing in his car, offered to assist F.S. Malley by bringing the hawk to the Station in his car.

The Chapei Policeman then ordered Mr. Lawrence to drive to the Chapei Sub-Station on the Edinburgh Road, and upon him refusing to do so he jumped on to the running board of the car and accompanied him to the Bubbling Well Station, where after being informed that the incident occurred on a Municipal Road and was a matter of the Settlement Authorities to deal with, he was escorted back to Edinburgh Road.

Hawker charged at Station.

C. D. S. B. REGISTRY.
No. D	Report of June 8.
Date	10/8/33

At 9.30 a.m. on June 7, Motor car No. 6710 went south to north on Edinburgh Road by Yu Kai Sei, permit No. 9840F, employed by Mrs. E. Kelen, 151 Route Magriny, and when about 200 yards south of Yu Yuen Road a Chinese pedestrian suddenly attempted to run across the road and was knocked down by the front bumper of the car.

Japanese Constables No's 158 and 236 who were on duty in the vicinity were taking particulars of the accident when members of the Public Safety Bureau appeared on the scene and ordered the chauffeur to proceed with the injured person to the 6th Division Station, Jessfield Road.

Inspector Chamberlain attended but upon arrival found that the chauffeur had already been released after being fined $2.00 for breach of traffic regulations and ordered to pay the injured person $1 compensation.

Inspector Chamberlain informed the Inspector on duty at the 6th Division Station that his men were functioning on a Municipal Road but did not receive any satisfaction.
